CALL FOR PAPERS/PRESENTATIONS

3RD ANNUAL HONG KONG INNOVATIVE USERS GROUP MEETING

Presented by

The Hong Kong Innovative Users Group

9 and 10 December 2002
at the University of Hong Kong
Rayson Huang Theatre, Hong Kong

Following up the success in the first two Meetings, the aim of the third event is to offer participants across East Asia an opportunity to present and discuss innovative online and digital developments and applications in your own institutions for improved management of and access to library collections. Presentations on new in-house developments to improve the performance of the INNOPAC system will be appreciated but discussions will not be restricted to INNOPAC during the two days. The Meeting will include papers from keynote and Innovative Interfaces Inc. speakers. Institutions are also invited to present visual exhibitions of new products or innovative system applications and developments as an alternative or in addition to their oral presentations.

You are invited to submit an abstract of your paper that you wish to deliver within the scope of the focus areas as listed below:

- ❖ WWW technology and INNOPAC Millennium
    - ➢ Hardware and software applications
    - ➢ Intranet applications
    - ➢ Portals (technology and applications)
    - ➢ XML
    - ➢ Web and other developments

- ❖ Web as digital data and information medium
    - ➢ Digital information sources (e-journals, e-thesis)
    - ➢ Digital library and imaging systems
    - ➢ Search engines
    - ➢ Intelligent agents

- ❖ Meta information application (meta data, meta sourcing)

- ❖ Library and other application automation

Abstracts of between 300 and 500 words should be submitted via e-mail to the Programme Committee by Monday 30 September 2002.
